Report of the Investment Manager

For the period ended 30 June 2023

Overview

The Dominion Global Trends - Luxury Consumer Fund's (GT Luxury Consumer Fund) NAV per share denominated in Euro (EUR IC Class) finished the reporting period up 14.23%.

The Dominion Global Trends – Managed Fund's (GT Managed Fund) NAV per share denominated in Euro (EUR A Class) finished the reporting period up 13.23%.

The Dominion Global Trends – Ecommerce Fund's (GT Ecommerce Fund) NAV per share denominated in Euro (EUR B Class) finished the reporting period up 17.15%.

The positive up trend in equity markets in first half of 2023 supported positive moves in the Global Trends Funds in the period. This trend was especially pronounced in sectors in which the Global Trends Funds invest. Following a negative move down in equity markets in calendar year 2022, equity markets have seen a sustained period of positive moves in 2023, with MSCI World rising by 13.25%, S&P 500 by 14.67%, and the Nasdaq Index by 36.71% in the year-to-date period ended June 30th, 2023.

Equity market valuations started the year at much lower levels versus recent history due to the significant declines seen in markets in calendar year 2022. Economic growth data and corporate earnings results through the first two quarters of 2023 have exceeded expectations, with consumer confidence and economic performance in the United States and Europe remaining relatively robust despite the headwinds of higher inflation and interest rates.

The top 5 holdings at the end of the reviewing period in GT Luxury Consumer Fund were: LVMH, Match Group, Coupang, Hermes and Inditex.

The top 5 holdings at the end of the reviewing period in GT Managed Fund were: Match Group, Meta Platforms, Alphabet, Micron Technology and Amazon.

The top 5 holdings at the end of the reviewing period in GT Ecommerce Fund were: Match Group, Meta Platforms, Amazon, Micron Technology, and Wolters Kluwer.

GT Managed Fund's NAV increased by 26.9%. The Fund NAV increased from Euro 74.576 mn at the beginning of the year to Euro 94.666 mn on 30th June 2023.

GT Ecommerce Fund's NAV increased by 8.8%. The Fund NAV increased from Euro 51.920 mn at the beginning of the year to Euro 56.480 mn on 30th June 2023.

Outlook

The first half of 2023 has seen positive moves in equity markets and positive returns on the Funds. The macro-economic outlook remains highly uncertain for the global economy, with inflation coming down but remaining stubbornly high and requiring continued central bank action via raised interest rates. Higher interest rates have led to some uncertainty and volatility in the banking industry earlier in the year, but this did not lead to contagion in the rest of the financial industry and the damage was relatively contained.

Despite the ongoing headwinds to the economy and market sentiment, the pace of interest rate hikes has slowed down and the peak in interest rates is likely to occur later in calendar year 2023 or early in calendar year 2024. Levels of inflation have continued to moderate and, despite the aforementioned economic headwinds, the economy remains in relatively strong shape, especially in the United States and Europe. The focus of the Funds is to invest in high quality, growing businesses, with strong balance sheets trading at reasonable valuations, and this strategy provides a valuable margin of safety to potential downside from further weakness in the economy if that were to occur. The medium and long-term outlook for these businesses remains strong given the underlying strength of their business models.

All references to net assets throughout this document refer to net assets attributable to holders of redeemable shares of the respective Sub-Fund.

The statement of financial position presents assets and liabilities in increasing order of liquidity and does not distinguish between current and non-current items. All other assets and liabilities are expected to be realised within one year.

2.1 Use of estimates and judgements

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an on-going basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

In the opinion of the Directors, the accounting estimates and judgements made in the course of preparing these financial statements are not difficult, subjective or complex to a degree which would warrant their description as critical in terms of the requirements of IAS 1 (revised).

2.2 Functional and presentation currency

The majority of the Company's operating expenses arise in the Eurozone. The performance of the each Sub-Fund is measured and reported to the investors in Euro. The Board of Directors considers the Euro as the currency that most faithfully represents the economic effects of the underlying transactions, events and conditions. The financial statements are presented in Euro, which is the Company's functional and presentation currency.

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into Euro at the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities carried at fair value through profit or loss denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the reporting date into Euro at the exchange rate at that date.

Foreign currency differences arising on translation of financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised in the statement of comprehensive income as "Other net gains from financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss."

All other foreign currency movements are recognised in the statement of comprehensive income as "Other income/ (expenses)".

The following Euro exchange rates have been utilised in preparing the financial statements:

Period end rate:	USD	0.9159	GBP	1.1647
Average rate:	USD	0.9144	GBP	1.1547

3. Significant accounting policies

The accounting policies set out below have been applied consistently to all periods presented in these financial statements.

3.1 Financial assets and financial liabilities

3.1.1 Recognition and measurement

Financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recognised initially on the trade date at which the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Other financial assets and liabilities are recognised on the date they are originated.

Financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are measured initially at fair value, with transaction costs recognised in the statement of comprehensive income.

Subsequent to initial recognition, all financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value. Gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value of the 'financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss' category are presented in the statement of comprehensive income within other net changes in fair value of financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

Financial assets or liabilities not at fair value through profit or loss are recognised initially at fair value plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to their acquisition or issue.

3.1.2 Classification

The Company has classified financial assets and financial liabilities into the following categories:

Financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss:

- Debt securities, equity investments and derivative financial instruments;

Financial assets at amortised cost:

- Cash and cash equivalents and trade and other receivables;

Financial liabilities at amortised cost:

- Trade and other payables and redeemable shares.

The Company classifies its investments based on both the Company's business model for managing those financial assets and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial assets. The portfolio of financial assets is managed and performance is evaluated on a fair value basis. The Company is primarily focused on fair value information and uses that information to assess the assets' performance and to make decisions. The Company has not taken the option to irrevocably designate any equity securities as fair value through other comprehensive income. The contractual cash flows of the Company's debt securities are solely principal and interest, however, these securities are neither held for the purpose of collecting contractual cash flows nor held both for collecting contractual cash flows and for sale. The collection of contractual cash flows is only incidental to achieving the Company's business model's objective. Consequently, all investments are measured at fair value through profit or loss. Derivative contracts that have a negative fair value are presented as liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

As such, the Company classifies all of its investment portfolio as financial assets or liabilities as fair value through profit or loss.

The Company's policy requires the Investment Manager and the Board of Directors to evaluate the information about these financial assets and liabilities on a fair value basis together with other related financial information.

The Company holds equity securities which had previously been designated at fair value through profit or loss and were mandatorily classified as fair value through profit or loss on adoption of IFRS 9.

3.1 Financial assets and financial liabilities (continued)

3.1.3 Fair value measurement

Fair value is the amount for which an asset could be exchanged, or a liability settled, between knowledgeable, willing parties in an arm's length transaction on the measurement date.

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value of financial assets and liabilities traded in active markets (such as publicly traded securities) are based on quoted market prices where the last traded price falls within the bid-ask spread at the measurement date.

The best evidence of the fair value of a financial instrument at initial recognition is the transaction price, i.e. the fair value of the consideration given or received.

All changes in fair value other than interest and dividend income, are recognised in the statement of comprehensive income as "other net gains/(losses) from financial instruments at fair value through profit and loss."

3.1.4 Amortised cost measurement

Financial assets at amortised costs are subsequently measured at amortised cost. At each reporting date, the Company measures the loss allowance on this type of financial asset at an amount equal to the lifetime ECL if the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition. If, at the reporting date, the credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Company measures the loss allowance at an amount equal to the 12-month ECL. Significant financial difficulties of the counterparty, probability that the counterparty will enter bankruptcy or financial reorganisation, and default in payments are all considered indicators that a loss allowance may be required. If the credit risk increases to the point that it is considered to be credit-impaired, interest income will be calculated based on the gross carrying amount adjusted for the loss allowance. A significant increase in credit risk is defined by management as any contractual payment which is more than 30 days past due. Any contractual payment which is more than 90 days past due is considered credit-impaired.

Financial liabilities arising from the puttable feature of shares issued by the Company are carried at the amount representing the shareholder's right to a residual interest in the Company's net assets. Financial assets and liabilities not at fair value through profit and loss are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset or financial liability and of allocating the interest income or interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments or receipts throughout the expected life of the financial instrument, or, when appropriate, a shorter period, to the net carrying amount of the financial asset or financial liability. When calculating the effective interest rate, the Company estimates cash flows considering all contractual terms of the financial instrument but does not consider future credit losses. The calculation includes all fees and points paid or received between parties to the contract that are an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and all other premiums or discounts.

3.1.5 Derecognition

The Company derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or it transfers the rights to receive the contractual cash flows on the financial asset in a transaction in which substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred. Any interest in transferred financial assets that is created or retained by the Company is recognised as a separate asset or liability.

On derecognition of a financial asset, the difference between the carrying amount of the asset and the consideration received is recognised in the statement of comprehensive income.

The Company derecognises a financial liability when its contractual obligations are discharged, cancelled or expired.

3.1.6 Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the statement of financial position when, and only when, the Company has a legal enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and it intends either to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or the counterparty.

Income and expenses are presented on a net basis only when permitted under IFRSs as adopted by the EU.

3.2 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks and other short-term investments in an active market with original maturities of three months or less. The income or expense on the translation of monetary assets and liabilities is recognised within "Other expenses" in the statement of comprehensive income.

3.3 Other receivables and payables

Other receivables and payables represent amounts receivable and payable respectively, for transactions contracted for but not yet delivered by the end of the year. These amounts are initially recognised at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost less any provision for impairment for other receivables.

3.4 Due from and due to broker

Amounts due to and due from broker are for transactions contracted for but not yet delivered by the end of the year. These amounts are initially recognised at fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less any provision for impairment for other receivables.

3.5 Redeemable shares

The Company issues redeemable shares which are redeemable at the option of the holder and are classified as financial liabilities. Redeemable shares can be put back to the Company at any time for cash equal to a proportionate share of that Company's net asset value. Shares are redeemed on a daily basis.

The redeemable shares are carried at amortised cost which corresponds to the redemption amount that is payable at the statement of financial position date if the holder exercises the right to put the share back to the Sub-Fund.

Redeemable shares are issued and redeemed at the holder's option at prices based on the Sub-Fund's net asset value per share at the time of issue or redemption. The Sub-Fund's net asset value per share is calculated by dividing the net assets attributable to the holders of each class of redeemable shares with the total number of outstanding redeemable shares for each respective class.

3.6 Accrued expenses

Accrued expenses are recognised initially at fair value and subsequently stated at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

3.7 Interest income, dividend income and other income

Interest income is recognised on a time-proportionate basis using the effective interest method. It includes interest income from cash and cash equivalents.

Dividend income is recognised when the right to receive payment is established.

Other income includes the initial charge booked on the subscription amount and exit charge on the redemption amount for the investment. It also includes gains resulting from the settlement of transactions and from the translation at period-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies.

3.8 Transaction costs

Transaction costs are costs incurred to acquire financial assets or liabilities at fair value through profit or loss. They include fees and commissions paid to agents, advisers, brokers and dealers. Transaction costs, when incurred, are immediately recognised in profit or loss as an expense. Transaction costs also include other expenses.

3.9 Increase/decrease in net assets attributable to holders of redeemable shares from operations

Income not distributed is included in net assets attributable to holders of redeemable shares. Movements in net assets attributable to holders of redeemable shares are recognised in the statement of comprehensive income as finance costs.

4. Financial risk management

The Company's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: market risk (including currency risk, fair value interest rate risk, cash flow interest rate risk and price risk), credit risk, liquidity risk and operational risk.

The condensed interim financial statements do not include all financial risk management information and disclosures required in the annual financial statements; they should be read in conjunction with the Company's annual financial statements as at 31 December 2022. There have been no changes in any risk management policies since the year end.

5. Valuation of financial instruments

The Company measures fair values using the following fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements:

- Level 1: Quoted price (unadjusted) in an active market for an identical instrument.
- Level 2: Valuation techniques based on observable inputs, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices). This category includes instruments valued using: quoted prices in active markets for similar instruments; quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are considered less than active; or other valuation techniques for which all significant inputs are directly or indirectly observable from market data.
- Level 3: Valuation techniques using significant unobservable inputs. This category includes all instruments for which the valuation technique includes inputs not based on observable data and the unobservable inputs have a significant effect on the instrument's valuation. This category includes instruments that are value based on quoted prices for similar instruments for which significant unobservable adjustments or assumptions are required to reflect differences between the instruments.

All of the Company's financial assets have been classified as Level 1 as at 30 June 2023 (31 December 2022: Level 1), as the fair value of financial assets is based on quoted market prices in active markets. The Company does not adjust the quoted price for these instruments.

The fair value of the following financial assets and liabilities approximate their carrying amount:

- Trade and other receivables,
- Cash and cash equivalents, and
- Trade and other payables.

7. Net Asset Value ("NAV") per redeemable share

The NAV per redeemable share class is based on the net assets attributable to holders of each class at the period end date and on the period end number of shares in issue for each class.

The NAV per redeemable share as disclosed in these financial statements is different to the published NAV per such share. This difference, which is not material (difference is less than 2% of NAV per share), relates to the treatment of preliminary expenses and commissions. For valuation purposes these are amortised on a straight-line basis over 5 years. For accounting purposes these expenses are written off in full in the first period of the Company's financial statements in accordance with IFRS.

8.3 Reimbursement of fees

During the reporting period ended 30 June 2023, € nil has been reimbursed to the Investment Manager on behalf of the Company (30 June 2022: €nil). These are included within 'Other expenses' in the statement of comprehensive income.

8.4 Promotional fees

Promotional fees are charged by DFML based on a charge of up to 1.5% of new subscriptions in GT Luxury Consumer Fund, GT Managed Fund and GT Ecommerce Fund. These expenses are included within 'Marketing expenses' in the statement of comprehensive income and amount to €486,305 for the period ended 30 June 2023 (30 June 2022: €273,493). DFML is also the company that receives the initial commissions on new business.

8.5 Deferred charge expense

A deferred charge is applied for the C Share and DC share classes of the sub-funds. A deferred charge is a staggered form of initial charge. Instead of bearing an initial charge which reduces the amount of investor shares issued when first subscribing, share classes with a deferred charge spread out the initial charge over the course of a number of years. The deferred charge is payable to the Investment Manager. In order to ensure that the deferred charge is borne equitably by investors in these share classes, investors that redeem their investor shares before the end of the deferral period (5 years) will incur a redemption charge proportionate to the number of years remaining until the end of the deferral period. The deferred charge for the C, DC and D share classes amounts to 6.5%, 8% and 5% respectively, of the subscription amount attributable to each subscription and for pricing purposes this charge is either:

- i) Amortised over 5 years; or
- ii) Levied as a redemption charge (in the case of investor redeems before the five year period).

For the purposes of preparing financial statements in accordance with IFRS as adopted by the EU these deferred charges have been expensed in full. Deferred charges for the period ended 30 June 2023 amounted to €164,456 (30 June 2022: €110,463) and are included in 'Transaction costs' account in the statement of comprehensive income.
